

March, 2020

TEMPORARY RESIDENCE AND EMPLOYMENT PERMITS FOR E.U. NATIONALS

GENERAL

The Free Movement and Residence of Nationals of the Member States of the European Union and their Families Law of 2003, No. 92(I)/2003, was adopted on 18th July 2003 and entered into force on 1st May 2004. According to this law, nationals of E.U. member states who move to Cyprus in order to pursue activity as employed persons are granted a residence and employment permit for five (5) years which is renewable automatically upon the request of the person concerned.

REGULATIONS

When an E.U. national wishes to work in Cyprus, he/she must report his/her presence to the Civil Registry and Migration Department of the Ministry of Interior or any District Alien and Immigration Branch of the Police within eight (8) days from the date of arrival to Cyprus and to complete the relevant form MEU1DECL/MEU2DECL. This report will allow this person an employed activity and to provide or receive services for up to three months.

There exists the possibility that European nationals can come to Cyprus without having a contract of employment and to have the chance to look for a job for a period of three (3) months.

In the event that a European national who comes to Cyprus, wishes to work in the country for a period of more than three (3) months, he/she must register with the Civil Registry and Migration Department of the Ministry of Interior, or any District Alien and Immigration Branch of the Police and to complete the relevant form MEU1 for employed activity and for self-employed activity or for providing or receiving services in Cyprus.

The application must be submitted within three (3) months of entry in the Republic and the permit is granted within a maximum period of six (6) months from the date of submission of the application.

EXECUTIVE STAFF

E.U. nationals who will be employed in an executive position must complete the Form MEU1. This Form must be submitted to the Civil Registry and Migration Department in Nicosia together with the following non exhaustive list of documents:

1. Valid passport or identity card and a photocopy of it, with which he will enter the Republic
2. Two recent photographs
3. A confirmation of engagement from the employer stamped by the Labour Department in which the duration and type of work offered by the employer is stated
4. Employment Agreement fully signed
5. Confirmation of the registration of to the social insurance

For any members of the applicant's family who will be with the applicant in Cyprus and for whom on application will be submitted for a residence permit, the following non exhaustive list of documents must be submitted:

1. Valid passport or identity card and a photocopy of it, with which they will enter the Republic
2. A marriage certificate or certified copy
3. A birth certificate or certified copy
4. Two photographs for each person
5. Any other document issued by the competent authority of the state of their origin providing the affinity with the applicant or certifying that the said persons are dependent on the applicant for their living under the same roof in that state

Please note that the minimum salary of the applicant should be €41.006 per year.

A five year resident permit is granted from the date of issue of the permit for employed activity. Upon the first renewal the duration of the validity of the residence permit may be limited to one (1) year if its holder is against his will unemployed in Cyprus for more than 12 months. Upon the expiry of this period, the residence permit is not renewed if its holder continues to remain unemployed.

NON-EXECUTIVE STAFF

E.U. nationals, who will be employed in a non-executive position, must complete Form MEU1 and this Form must be submitted to the District Aliens and Immigration Branches of the Police together with the following documents:

Valid passport or identity card and a photocopy of it, with which he will enter the Republic

Two recent photographs.

A confirmation of engagement from the employer stamped by the Labour Department in which the duration and type of work offered by the employer is stated.

For any members of the applicant's family who will be with the applicant in Cyprus and for whom on application will be submitted for a residence permit, the following non exhaustive documents must be submitted:

1. Valid passport or identity card and a photocopy of it, with which they will enter the Republic
2. A marriage certificate or certified copy
3. A birth certificate or certified copy
4. Two photographs for each person
5. Any other document issued by the competent authority of the state of their origin providing the affinity with the applicant or certifying that the said persons are dependent on the applicant for their living under the same roof in that state
6. Employment Agreement fully signed
7. Confirmation of the registration of to the social insurance.

Please note that there is no minimum salary requirement.

Please note that the application must be submitted personally by the applicant to the District Aliens and Immigration Branches of the Police and an appointment must be arranged for this purpose.

SELF EMPLOYED ACTIVITY

E.U. nationals who do not wish to take up employed activity, can be self-employed. They must submit to the District Aliens and Immigration Branches of the Police Form MEU1 together with a valid passport or identity card and a photocopy of it, with which the applicant entered Cyprus and two recent photographs.

STUDENTS

E.U. nationals, who wish to study in Cyprus, may obtain a resident permit for vocational training in Cyprus, by submitting the relevant Form MEU5.

This application must be submitted within three (3) months from the applicant's entry into the Republic. The validity of the permit issued is restricted to the duration of the vocational training in question. Where the latter is more than one year, the validity of the permit will be for one year and will be renewable.

OTHER

Those who are legally residing in Cyprus and are not employed or self-employed, if the purpose of residing in the Republic of Cyprus is other than the above, then they have to prove:

- Fixed or adequate income from employment outside the Republic or
- Fixed or adequate income from other legal sources or
- Adequate deposits in financial institutions in the Republic or abroad and
- Proof of comprehensive health insurance in the Republic.

The purpose of this legal briefing is to provide a general guideline on the subject and not to be considered, in any way, as legal advice. It is advisable to seek professional and legal advice on this subject before proceeding with any general information provided to you. For further clarifications and advice please contact us at legal@economideslegal.com.

George Economides, LL.B

Partner

george.economides@economideslegal.com

T: +357 25 866 480